

Celebrate cultural arts at the Commonwealth Shakespeare Company's free performance of MacBeth!

Tuesday, July 22

7 P.M. BYO Picnic Dinner

8 P.M. Performance

MEETING PLACE: The Hospitality Tent at the Parkman Bandstand on the Boston Common (MBTA Park Street stop on the red or green line). FYI, restrooms, as well as beach chair rentals are available there. FAMILY & FRIENDS: Bring them along--Shakespeare appeals to everyone! WEATHER: The company tries to hold all performances, rain or shine, and does not make a decision about canceling until 6 pm or after. If the weather looks threatening, contact MAJESTIX at 617/824-8000 to see if the performance will be held. TIME: The performance begins at 8 p.m., and lasts about 2 hours and 45 minutes, including one 15 minute intermission. DRESS: Casual and comfortable--bring a light sweater, jacket, or blanket, as the nights can get cold. PREPARATION: The library has several text and video copies available. The entire text is online at www.shakespeare.com/FirstFolio/MACBETH/.
