

Celebrate service at enrichment meeting

Thursday • 26 Sept 2002 • 7:30-9:30 PM
Held at the Longfellow Park Chapel
Cambridge II Ward Relief Society

7:30 MESSAGE from Randall Rogers, Relief Society president

7:45 ACTIVITY “Pleased to Meet You!”

If we had world enough and time, we would retreat to some cozy cabin in the woods, and spend the weekend getting to know each other! Short of that, we will have to make every one of these fifteen minutes count as we kick off a new year in Relief Society.

8:00 MINICLASSES Choose one of the following:

Happiness at Home: Serving and Loving Our Own Family Members

We need not look far to find opportunities to lose ourselves in service. Join this lively discussion of smart, simple ways you can be a better family member to those closest to you, and go home with fresh ideas for gladdening the hearts and putting smiles on the faces of those dearest to you! (April Perry, Cultural Hall)

Church Service: What It Means to Magnify Our Calling “When we magnify our callings, we honor God,” taught President John Taylor. What does that mean for you in your current responsibility? Come be inspired to magnify your calling, whatever it may be, and catch a vision of going that “second mile.” (Megan Johnson, RS Room)

8:30 MINICLASSES Choose one of the following:

Community Service Opportunities All Around Us Come be motivated to look beyond yourself, discovering new ways to serve friends and neighbors, schools and communities. This hearty discussion will focus on Cambridge’s special needs, giving particular emphasis to the homeless problem. Service is what our society is all about, so don’t just be good—be good for something! (Tracy Phillips, Cultural Hall)

“Thanks, Mom!” Teaching Children Gratitude and Generosity An attitude of gratitude makes life infinitely brighter and happier. And good ideas for cultivating such an outlook abound (doesn’t Oprah recommend keeping a gratitude journal?). But just because those ideas are out there, doesn’t mean that following them is easy. Join this thoughtful class on the challenging task of instilling in our children the virtues of gratitude, generosity and a desire to serve others. (Brett Ure, Relief Society Room)

9:00 REFRESHMENTS — Quick Breads: Perfect autumn gifts for friends and neighbors

Chocolate Banana Bread, Pumpkin Bread, Zucchini Bread, Chocolate Chip Pecan Bread, Date-Nut Bread—Serve yourself! We’ll also display creative ways to gift wrap your loaves, and we’ll send you home with all of the recipes.

A DONATION TABLE will be set up to receive contributions for On The Rise, a women’s homeless shelter in Cambridge. They are always in need of clothing, boots and sneakers, new underwear, blankets, towels, sheets, socks, toothbrushes and travel size toothpaste, deodorant, toiletries, food, T-tokens and T-passes, office supplies, phone cards, backpacks and wheeled suitcases, postage stamps, and art and craft supplies.

The Longfellow Park chapel is located at 2 Longfellow Park, near Brattle and Church Streets in Cambridge.
